Mileage will be charged at the rate of 45p per mile from our office to the court.

We have a team of highly experienced court advocates who appear daily before both the Magistrates and Crown Court. Unless requested, we do not instruct external counsel in order to maintain an efficient and cost effective service.

Appeal to the Crown Court

Fees for preparation for an appeal against conviction or sentence are charged at an hourly rate:-

- Consideration of the papers
- taking instructions
- advice on strength of the evidence
- advice on likely outcome
- seeing witnesses if necessary
- instructing experts if necessary

The appeal hearing will be conducted by one of our higher rights solicitors who appear before the Crown Court on a daily basis dispensing with the need to instruct a barrister. By using the expertise of our own advocates it will keep the overall costs of the case down providing value for money for our clients.

Our fees for representing you at the Crown Court will be £800+ VAT= £960 for half a day (up to 3 hours) and £1200 + VAT= £1440 for full day.

We will require our fees to be paid in advance before any hearing in either the Magistrates' Court or the Crown Court.
